
Complex Commercial Litigation

Our clients have varied financial business interests throughout the southeastern United States. They have found that one of our strengths is the ability to handle the entire spectrum of disputes presented. These complex commercial disputes involve all aspects of commercial and business transactions, ranging from small amounts to hundreds of millions of dollars where the company's financial future will be determined by the outcome of the case. Our attorneys regularly handle complex commercial cases ranging from basic breach of contract to extremely intricate financial fraud cases. Our representation also involves cases involving disputes arising from mergers and acquisitions, construction, banking, intellectual property, insurance, professional liability, director and officer liability and business torts including breach of fiduciary duty.
