Overview

Emily joined Mills Paskert Divers in 2021. She devotes her practice to commercial litigation, focusing on construction, suretyship, and collection matters. Before joining the Firm, Emily focused on family law, complex business litigation and intellectual property matters. She was a research chemist before law school focusing on polyurethane chemistry. In law school, she focused on intellectual property areas such as patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets. Emily clerked for the United States Patent Office, received a Certificate in Intellectual Property Law, and served as Editor in Chief of the Journal of Technology Law and Policy.

In her spare time, Emily enjoys the beach and spends time with her dog Noodle.
